Description

Modern equestrian painting, oil on canvas, signed "Lambert," likely dating from the late 20th century. This expressive composition depicts a lively equestrian scene filled with horses, riders, and small human figures. The work blends figurative subject matter with a semi-abstract treatment, rendered with a free, lively, and highly dynamic brushstroke. The color palette combines deep shades of brown, blue, green, pink, and white, applied with broad, sweeping brushstrokes. The overall effect creates a scene full of movement, reminiscent of the world of horse racing and equestrian gatherings. The signature in the lower right appears to read "Lambert," accompanied by a date that is difficult to make out, likely from the 1990s. Given its subject matter, energy, and colorful treatment of the
