Description

An elegant, contemporary ring in gold-plated 925 sterling silver, enhanced by a harmonious setting of blue sapphires and white topazes.Its square setting features a pavé of nine natural sapphires in a deep blue hue, delicately framed by twenty-eight white topazes that subtly enhance its brilliance. The wide shoulders of the setting give it a balanced silhouette and a bold presence, while ensuring great comfort when worn.The contrast between the warmth of the gold-plated silver and the intensity of the sapphires creates a piece of jewelry that is both timeless and resolutely contemporary. Elegant without being ostentatious, this ring will complement both everyday outfits and more formal occasions.Gold-plated 925 sterling silver9 natural sapphires28 natural white topazesTotal weight of
