Description

Oil on canvas depicting a seascape of Honfleur.
An artist from the second half of the 20th century originally from Paris who exhibited extensively in French art salons. She divided her time between Paris, Normandy, and various places of inspiration throughout France. Colette Fromentin is particularly appreciated for her Post-Impressionist technique, which very often leans toward Pointillism. She excels at juxtaposing small dabs of pure color to create light and volume. She is recognized in the art market for her vibrant still lifes and scenes of everyday life; her Normandy and seascape landscapes are particularly sought after for their soothing and luminous atmosphere. Excellent command of color. Signed at the bottom of the 43 x 32 cm frame. Canvas dimensions: 33 x 22
