Description

A pair of display columns in the shape of an inverted truncated pyramid. A decorative piece that perfectly imitates classic marblework, ideal for a pair of busts, sculptures, vases, candelabras, or period-style lamps. Crafted from marble-effect scagliola, with in-the-mass decoration and natural stone inclusions. Beautiful polychrome finish combining a rich, veined crimson/cherry-red background with central panels carved in a draped/scalloped pattern in antique green marble (sea green or Maurin green style). Square upper shelf with pronounced molding to support heavy items. Elegantly sheathed quadrangular shaft (widening toward the top). Molded base resting on a square plinth. Some wear and restoration, but overall in very good condition. Late 19th-century Italian piece in the spirit of the 18th century
