Description

Authentic Empire-style chandelier in gilded bronze, from the 19th century. A six-light chandelier, entirely adorned with cut crystal. This piece stands out for its circular frame featuring three rows of crowns richly adorned with long crystal pendants, complemented by delicate garlands of faceted pearls. The finely chiseled bronze structure is embellished with medallions featuring crystal cabochons and topped by a crown decorated with palmette motifs, characteristic of the Empire style. The piece creates a superb play of light and reflections, highlighting the exceptional quality of its craftsmanship. With its harmonious proportions, rich decoration, and high-quality crystal, this chandelier is a prestigious piece that is particularly decorative. In very good condition.
