Description

The "Bohemian" Chaise Longue, designed by Patricia Urquiola and produced by Moroso in the 2000s, is an example of contemporary design that reinterprets traditional capitonné craftsmanship. The resin frame is covered in polyurethane, while the seat is enhanced with a leather upholstery that adds elegance and comfort. An additional fabric cushion completes the chaise longue, offering an extra level of comfort. The steel base ensures stability and durability, making this piece suitable for modern and sophisticated interior settings. Perfect as a piece of furniture for elegant living rooms or relaxation areas. MOSEPO0271894
