Description

This important Grand Folio series comes from a prestigious provenance, bearing the imperial monogram "M-A"--the same as that of Marie Antoinette--surmounted by the imperial crown, just as she was in her youth before becoming Queen of France... These beautiful copies feature gilt edges, spines adorned with nefrs and gilt metalwork, green morocco title labels and volume numbers, double fillets framing the covers with small flowers at the corners, marbled endpapers, and, above all, the crowned monogram at the center of each volume on both covers;;; Moréri's Dictionnaire Historique, 1740. A gem of a library--both useful and beautiful--whose history remains to be uncovered...
