Description

An elegant pair of Parisian porcelain vases dating from the second half of the 19th century, during the Second Empire (Napoleon III period). These vases feature a dynamic Rocaille-inspired shape, embellished with openwork handles, rich relief decoration accented with gold, and delicate areas of emerald green and pink. The front panels are adorned with hand-painted romantic scenes, while the reverse sides reveal charming bouquets of polychrome flowers, also hand-painted. The refinement of the decoration, the delicacy of the gilding, and the quality of the craftsmanship make this a superb example of prestigious 19th-century Parisian production. Condition: perfect condition, no chips, cracks, or restoration. Gilding remarkably well preserved. A highly elegant decorative pair, ideal for a classic interior,
