Description

This Parisian-designed sideboard and writing desk is an exceptional piece that combines functionality and aesthetics. Crafted from flamed mahogany, it opens with two doors generously molded with medallion-style heads and fruit motifs, fitted with an authentic lock, revealing three English-style drawers in lemonwood with fillets. The cabinet's middle section features a molded drawer with an original lock; its hinged front panel folds down to reveal a writing desk. The writing surface is upholstered in black leather, adorned with a vignette and a central motif. The interior also features three small drawers with turned wooden knobs. The baseboard conceals a drawer with shell-shaped molding and scrolls, adding a touch of refinement. The side posts feature scroll capitals
