Description

An elegant round side table made of exotic wood, resting on a central turned base with a sculptural silhouette characteristic of 20th-century Brazilian furniture. The warm grain of the wood, accented by contrasting hues, highlights the quality of its craftsmanship. The tabletop is adorned with a decorative panel depicting majestic butterflies fluttering among flowers, protected under glass, offering a beautiful decorative effect and a refined tropical touch. Whether used as a side table, a small stool, or an end table, this pedestal table will easily find its place in a vintage, design-oriented, or eclectic interior. A piece that is as decorative as it is functional, showcasing Brazilian craftsmanship and the warm aesthetic of 20th-century exotic furniture.
