Description

This late 19th-century mahogany-veneered sideboard is a remarkable piece of furniture that combines elegance and functionality. The sideboard features two side drawers, each fitted with wooden knobs and a central lock that locks both drawers simultaneously. These drawers provide convenient storage space for various items. This sideboard features double doors, with locks at the top and bottom, which are also veneered on the inside. These doors open onto a shelf mounted on adjustable rails, allowing for easy adjustment to suit storage needs. Topped with Sainte Anne gray marble featuring a double-curved edge, this piece rests on a baseboard, ensuring stability and an elegant finish that perfectly complements the overall design. The frame and drawer interiors are made of oak. This
