Description

An elegant oil-on-canvas painting depicting a lively seascape with several sailboats gliding across a calm sea, bathed in the light of late afternoon. The foreground is dominated by an imposing sailboat with brown sails, while other vessels stand out against the horizon in a luminous and serene atmosphere. The artist sensitively captures the reflections on the water and the play of light, creating a harmonious composition with soft tones. The work is signed in the lower right corner; the signature has yet to be identified. The painting is presented in its elegant antique oval frame made of wood and gilded stucco, which perfectly highlights the seascape. Dimensions: -52x43 (with frame)- 40x31 (without frame)
