Description

A charming two-part piece of furniture made of painted softwood, dating from the late 19th century. It features a beautiful cream-colored patina accented with brick-red trim, giving it an authentic and decorative character. The upper section opens with two doors to reveal two shelves. The middle section features two drawers, while the lower section opens with two doors to reveal an interior shelf. The antique hardware adds to the piece's overall charm. The keys and locks are in working order. This low-profile piece will easily find its place in a kitchen, entryway, or country home. Delivery within Metropolitan France: EUR180.
