230 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 22cm

Height : 42cm

Description

A beautiful pair of two-arm wall sconces in gilded bronze, in the Empire or Neoclassical style, sculpted in the shape of a quiver surmounted by a twisted flame, framed by two arms coiled in volutes and ending in lamp heads decorated with acanthus leaves. The base of each sconce tapers to a point adorned with a stylized pine cone motif, reminiscent of ancient spearheads or quivers--an ornamental motif highly prized during the First Empire and revived in the 19th and early 20th centuries. In very good condition and fully functional.
