Description

A rare set of 14 small side tables or coffee tables from the 1970s, crafted from gold-plated metal (brass) and topped with an elegant smoked glass tabletop. Their clean lines and classic '70s design make them as decorative as they are functional. They can be used individually as end tables, side tables, or plant stands, or grouped together to create an original arrangement in a living room, entryway, or boutique. The contrast between the gold-plated brass and the smoked glass adds a chic and timeless touch that blends seamlessly into both vintage and contemporary interiors.
