Description

An elegant coffee table designed by Florence Knoll and produced by Knoll International, an iconic piece of postwar American design. This table stands out for its rectangular tabletop made of white marble with gray veining, paired with a chrome-plated steel base featuring clean, architectural lines. True to Florence Knoll's aesthetic, it combines precision, elegance, and superior craftsmanship, making this model an essential icon of 20th-century furniture. Designed by Knoll International, this table is an original edition, sought after as much for its timelessness as for the quality of its materials. It fits equally well in a contemporary interior as it does in a modernist or classic setting. Condition: In very good condition. The marble top features a beautiful patina with slight signs of wear
