Description

A large porcelain punch bowl decorated with "Mandarin" figures. China, 18th Qianlong period (1736-1795) Diameter: 35 cm Height: 15 cm Provenance:- Private English collection Although the decor may appear conventional at first glance, the craftsmanship reveals a truly remarkable level of quality. Every element -- the clothing, their textures, the faces, the decor itself -- is finely worked. This level of execution gives the traditional so-called "Mandarin" style decor an altogether different feel, especially since the bowl is quite large. Such a degree of painting is rare. A small break into three fragments along the rim. Several hairlines have been professionally cleaned and reinforced, though they remain visible. Small chips along the cracks have been filled. Natural light pictures
