Description

Pol Chambost (1906-1983) - Turquoise-blue crackled-glaze ceramic bowl, circa 1970. An elegant ceramic bowl by Pol Chambost, featuring a beautiful flared shape with clean, modern lines. It is covered with a remarkable, finely crackled turquoise-blue glaze, characteristic of the artist's experiments with so-called "China blue" glazes, which he began developing in the 1960s. The quality of the glaze, with its deep and luminous hues, highlights the refined silhouette of this piece, emblematic of the work of Pol Chambost, a major figure in 20th-century French ceramics. Signed on the base. In very good condition, with no chips or cracks. Dimensions: Height: 12.5 cm Diameter: 9 cm. A refined piece that will fit equally well in a collection of art ceramics or in a contemporary
