Description

Description This elegant vintage floral rug displays a refined Indo-Persian design with a soft ivory field framed by a rich burgundy border. The composition features scrolling vines, stylised palmettes, floral rosettes and delicate botanical motifs arranged in a balanced, symmetrical layout inspired by classical Persian carpets. The restrained colour palette of ivory, burgundy, sage green, pale blue and soft peach creates a sophisticated appearance that complements both traditional and contemporary interiors. The rug exhibits a dense, finely executed weave and a luxurious pile, reflecting the high-quality craftsmanship associated with decorative export carpets produced in South Asia during the late twentieth century. Origin Probably India. Region Likely Bhadohi / Mirzapur weaving
