Description

Brian DUFFY (1933-2010) Michael Hastings and Victoria Hardie, 1974. Silver gelatin print. Signed and dated "74" on the front. Annotated on the back. View size: 18 x 26.5 cm. Raised in Brixton before taking the London and New York stages by storm at just twenty years old, Michael Hastings (1938-2011) was a singular figure in British theater. Driven by a passion for live performance and travel, he rejected abstract trends in favor of narrative purity and openness to other cultures. His works transcend borders, ranging from the intimate to the international epic, always imbued with a constant creative restlessness. Daring and generous, he strove in his writing to give a voice back to history's forgotten figures. His incisive and unpredictable writing style gives his plays a unique narrative power.
