

Four-sided Bookcase, 17th Century, From Piedmont

100 000 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Solid wood

Length : 620 + 560 + 614 + 580

Height : 323

Description

LIB163 - A majestic, four-sided antique bookcase that creates an immersive space of great elegance and character. The wooden structure, crafted with artisanal care, extends from floor to ceiling and houses a vast collection of books, offering at the same time sturdiness, order, and a striking visual impact. Every wall has been designed down to the smallest detail: modular bookshelves alternate with paneling and enclosed compartments, while doors and passageways--perfectly integrated into the wood paneling design--allow access to adjacent rooms without disrupting the aesthetic continuity. The result is a harmonious whole, where functionality and design coexist naturally. The central space--open and well-proportioned--is ideal for accommodating reading, meeting, or consultation tables, making

Dealer

Simone Marro antichità

Antique doors and fireplaces, architectural elements

Tel : +39 0171 611602

Mobile : +39 345 5815837

Via monte moro 2a

Cervasca 12010

the environment suitable for both study and entertaining. Designed for prestigious residences, professional offices, institutional headquarters, or cultural foundations, this bookcase represents a custom solution capable of transforming a room into an exclusive, refined, and timeless space, where the value of wood and bespoke design takes center stage. 17th century. From Piedmont. Dimensions (sides): W 620 + 560 + 614 + 580 x H 323 cm