Description

This 750/°° white gold ring (18 KT, eagle-head hallmark) elegantly captures the geometric style characteristic of Art Deco. Its band, entirely set with brilliant-cut diamonds, unfolds in a tiered, staircase-like design. The succession of square and rectangular motifs, arranged around two superimposed central diamonds, forms a rigorously symmetrical design, enlivened by clean, perfectly structured lines. Each diamond is set individually in a geometric setting with delicately beaded edges, a detail characteristic of Art Deco jewelry. This fine craftsmanship precisely highlights the arrangement of the design and accentuates the contrasts between the different levels of the motif. The ring's deliberately flat and enveloping profile harmoniously hugs the finger. Highly sought-after today, this type of design offers a striking presence while remaining exceptionally comfortable to wear. It allows the ring to rest naturally on the hand, striking a perfect balance between width, depth, and comfort. When worn, the white gold recedes visually, giving way to a luminous and graphic design that highlights the brilliance of the diamonds. Its architectural and timeless design makes it a ring with character, easy to wear for any occasion. Estimated total diamond weight: 0.65 carats Total gross weight: 3.27 g Ring size: 54 - Can be resized to your preference by our workshop; resizing is complimentary (current diameter 1.70 cm / US size 7) Condition: very good condition, imperceptible micro-scratches, natural inclusions in the diamonds not visible to the naked eye.
