

Westerwald Stoneware Pitcher With Coat Of Arms, Circa 1700

1 200 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sandstone

Description

An interesting German stoneware pitcher, decorated with a lovely round medallion stamped with an unidentified alliance coat of arms. The outline of the coat of arms is embellished with hearts and pearls on a cobalt blue background; much of the body features an engraved floral design, also accented with cobalt blue. A ribbed handle ends in a classic small scroll. The original pewter lid features a beautiful handle shaped like a sea monster. Good condition, slight wear from use on the decoration, a small chip on the neck, no chips, no restoration. Height at the neck: 30 cm
Height at the dolphin-shaped handle: 34.5 cm
Maximum diameter: 19.5 cm
