Description

Oil on canvas. Late 18th-century Italian school. Portrait of a prelate in his cassock, posing in front of the drapery that conceals the fluted columns of his place of worship. The facial features are well rendered. The painting has been retouched in the past. It shows a small area of flaking paint in the upper right corner. In a late 19th-century frame (in need of restoration). ARARPI0319219
