Description

Andy WARHOL (1928-1987) Campbell Soup, circa 1977. Drawing in black marker on a page from a book. Inscribed "To Jean-Claude" and signed. Sunprint. View size: 19.5 x 15.5 cm. Framed: 53 x 53 cm. Provenance: Private collection, Lyon. By making the Campbell's Soup can his favorite subject, Andy Warhol elevated a mundane mass-market product to the status of a Pop Art icon. By mechanically repeating this universal, everyday motif, the artist questions American consumer society, industrialization, and the boundary between high art and popular culture.
