Description

TAV335 - Rustic oak table, 18th century. The tabletop, which is remarkably long and thick, showcases the beautiful natural grain of the oak, with warm, deep tones that lend great character to the piece as a whole. The frame is supported by solid legs with shaped feet, connected by a central longitudinal crossbar that ensures stability and sturdiness. The simple, functional lines evoke the rustic and monastic furniture of the 18th century, where sturdiness and practicality are combined with understated elegance and a lack of decorative excess. Dimensions: L 200 x H 79 x D 75 cm
