Description

Igor Balarin (born 1945) - Bronze Sculpture - Edition 1/8
An elegant bronze sculpture with a golden-brown patina by sculptor Igor Balarin (born in 1945), a Peruvian-born artist known for his vertical and organic compositions in which the human figure blends into an interplay of abstract forms. His work is characterized by slender, powerful, and expressive silhouettes that evoke the human body as well as mineral or plant forms. This work features a vertical composition of great sculptural power, whose sculpted volumes beautifully capture the light. The warm patina highlights the reliefs and accentuates the sense of movement characteristic of Balarin's sculptural language. The sculpture is signed "I. Balarin" on the base and numbered 1/8, corresponding to a limited edition consistent with
