

Louis-joseph Clert: "rare Taste" Wine Bottle In Solid Silver, 128.4 G, Luçon 1782-84

640 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

Rare solid silver wine decanter with a plain, flat design, featuring handles with stylized facing serpents. Hallmarks (a "P" for charge and a head in profile for discharge, on the body and handle) from the jurisdiction of POITIERS 1781-89, Common House Mark for LUÇON 1782-84 (an "L" surmounted by the crowned date letter "J") and the hallmark of Master Goldsmith Louis-Joseph CLERT, who was licensed in 1773 to practice in Saint-Maixent and moved his business to Luçon in 1774. A rare find--a Luçon wine bottle in good condition and remarkably hallmarked, with a small "straw mark" at the base of the handle (which the silversmith who cleaned it chose to leave as it is original). For the discerning collector...Diameter (without the handle): 8 cmLength (with handle): 10.5
