Description

A magnificent example of late 19th-century French craftsmanship, this extraordinary chandelier embodies the elegance and refinement of the Belle Époque. Dating from around 1890, it features a beautifully sculpted bronze frame, richly adorned with graceful floral branches and finely molded botanical details. The chandelier is sumptuously adorned with flowers made of clear Baccarat crystal and clear Baccarat crystal pendants, creating a captivating interplay of light and brilliance. Its elegant two-tiered design is illuminated by 18 candle-shaped light points, casting a warm and inviting glow while highlighting the crystal's exceptional depth and beauty. The harmonious combination of finely chiseled bronze, exquisite Baccarat crystal, and delicate floral motifs gives this chandelier a
