

Two 19th-century Norman Cheese Strainers

360 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Terracotta

Description

The larger one, featuring two finger-shaped handles resting on three flattened round feet--which facilitate drainage--originates from the Eure department. The smaller, cylindrical one with a flared neck is entirely glazed in a beautiful green, typical of the Pré d'Auge region. Good condition; visible wear on the one from the Eure, a visible chip on the one from the Pré d'Auge, and a few firing cracks. Dimensions: Eure cheese strainer Height: 11.5 cm Diameter: 27 cm Pré d'Auge cheese strainer Height: 13.5 cm Diameter: 14.6 cm
