Description

A desk set in pink- and green-tinted bronze, consisting of a letter opener and a seal decorated with raspberries. These two pieces, signed MARIONNET, are presented in a case by J Grandjean in Villefranche-sur-Saône. Note: Albert Marionnet, born in 1852 and died in 1910, was a renowned sculptor and bronze artist based in Paris. In 1882, he opened his own art foundry and quickly rose to fame due to his mastery of the gilded bronze technique. His sculptures are often inspired by nature, animals, and mythology. Carefully packaged and shipped via Colissimo with insurance.
