Description

DARS692 - A striking pair of antique decorative wooden columns, finely crafted and hand-painted. The surfaces feature a rich polychrome finish in shades of green, marbled red, and brown, embellished with relief decorations and gilded details, which lend them great elegance and visual impact. The original patina, with signs of age, minor imperfections, and natural wear, attests to the authenticity of the pieces and enhances their decorative value. The columns are ideal as architectural elements for prestigious interiors, dramatic entryways, theatrical sets, or restoration projects with a classic and eclectic style. A set with a strong visual impact, capable of transforming any space with character and history. 18th century.

Provenance: Rome. Dimensions: W 50 x 50 x H
