Description

A superb pair of carved bookends depicting the heads of harnessed horses, crafted from artistic cast iron with a magnificent, nuanced patina (shades of bronze and verdigris). Each figure is strikingly realistic: the anatomical detail (musculature, nostrils, eyes) as well as the details of the harness (bridle, bit, and reins) are executed with great finesse. The set rests on a solid corner base made of polished black marble, providing the weight and perfect stability needed to hold your most beautiful books.
