Description

Large, double-sided, Louis XVI-style desk in mahogany, with beveled corners. This desk features pull handles on each side and opens to reveal three drawers running along the base, framed by a brass molding that highlights the drawers. The top and shelves are covered in original red leather adorned with gold-colored braiding stamped with a hot iron. Top featuring a brass ingot holder. It rests on fluted tubular legs topped with a bronze ring. Desk from the MAIFERT House
