

Louis XIV / Early Regency-style Chest Of Drawers, Circa 1700, Very Early 18th Century

3 200 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 133cm

Height : 91cm

Depth : 68,5cm

Description

Imposing chest of drawers from the Louis XIV / Early Regency period. Circa 1700Stunning front with arbalète carving, paneled sides.Our chest of drawers features a solid frame made of solid walnut with a few wood "knots" (particularly on one of the drawers)It opens with three drawers on the front. The two upper drawers have an antique lock; the bottom drawer has no lock. We do not have the key to this piece.Beautiful bronze handles decorated with male and female figures.This piece is in very good condition, as one would expect from a piece that has been in a home. It has undergone minor, routine restoration.Signs of wear and old woodworm holes (long since abandoned!) are worth noting. A slightly dark mark is visible on one of the sides of the piece.This magnificent piece, with its rustic

Dealer

Le Houppier

sélection d'objets et meubles

Tel : 06 58 93 91 25

39 rue Gabriel Thavenot

Feytiat 87220

and imposing design and superb patina, has perfectly preserved its authenticity.