

---

Daum France - Crystal Whiskey Decanter, Circa 1960.

250 EUR

Signature : Daum

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Crystal

|             |
|-------------|
| Description |
|-------------|

DAUM FRANCE - CRYSTAL WHISKEY DECANTER, CIRCA 1960A very beautiful and elegant crystal whiskey decanter from the prestigious Daum company, made in France circa 1960. This piece is particularly representative of Daum's postwar creations, a period during which the manufacturer developed a resolutely modern aesthetic centered on "free forms." Daum itself traces the emergence of this new style to the 1940s, prior to the major expansion of its artistic and design creations in the 1960s. DaumThe decanter features a substantial body of blown-and-molded crystal, with thick walls that are slightly compressed and irregularly shaped. The deep undulations in the crystal create remarkable plays of light and give the piece a highly sculptural presence. It is topped by its

|        |
|--------|
| Dealer |
|--------|

Antiquaire Art & Antics Mr Grabinski

Antiquités, Objets d'art, Décoration et collections

Tel : 06 80 87 12 34

Mobile : 06 80 87 12 34

1 RUE VOLTAIRE

Grenoble 38000

beautiful original stopper, also made of solid crystal, shaped like a teardrop or a twisted flame, which fits into a neck adorned with a wide metal band. A beautiful bar piece from the 1960s, ideal as a whiskey or spirits decanter, which perfectly combines function and decorative sculpture. Signed "Daum France" on the side of the body. In perfect condition. Daum France - Nancy Circa 1960 Blown and molded crystal Total height: 28.5 cm.