

Pierre Girard (1806-1872), Study Of A Plant: Mullein, Drawing

480 EUR

Signature : Pierre Girard (Paris 1806-1872)

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Water color

Width : 25

Height : 20,5

Description

Pierre Girard (Paris 1806-1872) Plant study:
mullein Brown wash and watercolor drawing 20.5 x 25 cm (sheet) 22.5 x 27.5 cm (frame) Signed and dated lower left: Girard 1831 Bears the Berville stamp on the reverse with the number "596" (L.3338) Good condition--a few small stains--modern wooden frame A student of Antoine Jean Gros, Pierre Girard exhibited paintings at the Salon between 1827 and 1872. He received the silver medal for the Prix de Rome in 1833. Here he presents a beautiful botanical study, depicting a mullein in its natural setting, deep in the forest.

Dealer

Bailliet Antiquités

Painting-Drawing-Frame

Tel : 06 18 78 28 60

Lyon 69000