Description

Large solid-wood armchairs, richly lacquered and finely carved. The medallion-shaped backs are edged with a row of beads reminiscent of the gilded tacks that hold the tapestry in place, and an acanthus leaf stopped with a knot. The armrest heads and supports, accented with rows of pearls, are carved with acanthus leaves. The wide seat rests on fluted legs adorned with water leaves. The crossbars, curved on the front and sides, are carved with short, serrated fluting surrounding two flowers in a rectangular cartouche at the center. The petit point tapestries, with very fresh colors on a beige background, depict flower-filled baskets surrounded by two rows of garlands of flowers. The back is made of small-checked canvas. Very good condition, beautiful patina, minimal signs of wear. A rare set featuring this
