Empire-style Office Or Bedroom Armchair In Mahogany And Gilded Bronze--with Gold-threaded Trim

2 400 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Mahogany

Description

Empire-style armchair in mahogany and mahogany veneer, with a curved backrest for added comfort, double-console front legs, and rear legs in the Etruscan style, with molded mahogany armrests. A luxury piece featuring armrests adorned with gilded bronze rosettes. A Parisian piece from the 1810s, unmarked and in the style of Marcion or attributable to his workshop. For this collector's armchair, we commissioned a restoration to Mobilier National standards: buffed varnish, horsehair upholstery in the "knife-blade knife-edge" style, which we covered with a Gericault-patterned silk from Maison Lelièvre, enhanced with double gold-thread braiding. A beautiful collector's piece of superior quality; our chair is a meticulously crafted and not the typical Empire armchair "you
