Description

cm Diameter: 96.5 cm
