

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

"the Duck Pond" By Gabriel Belot (1882-1962)

2 200 EUR

Signature : Gabriel BELOT 1882-1962

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Description

Oil on hardboard measuring 50 cm x 61 cm, plus frame 62 cm x 73 cm Signed lower left: Gabriel BELOT Titled on the back: "La batte seto?" The nuances of color are remarkable; the paint is applied with a palette knife with precision and great sensitivity Gabriel BELOT, born in 1882 in Paris, was a great artist who was unjustly forgotten for a long time Recognized by his peers as one of the greatest wood engravers of his generation A biographical book has just been published by Professor of Art History Mr. Stefan ALBL and his wife (available at the Galerie Guardia in Le Castellet for 35 euros. The gallery specializes in this artist's paintings) In it, he clearly explains that Belot, born into a very poor family, had an unhappy childhood His grandfather, a bookbinder, recognized his talent

Dealer

Galerie GUARDIA

Sarl AREDECO

Tel : 0494326698

Mobile : 0610480016

6 rue droite

Le Castellet 83330

for drawing at an early age and introduced him to wood engraving Gabriel Belot received many commissions for illustrations, but his deepest desire was to learn to paint As soon as he had the chance, he bought paints and received advice from the painters of Montmartre A great career lay ahead of him; he taught in Paris until around the 1930s, at which point, he would leave it all behind to settle in Provence, more specifically in Méounes-les-Montrieux Also passionate about nature, he would set out from morning to night in all kinds of weather, into the countryside to capture on canvas the marvelous colors of the countryside and the woods He passed away in 1962 at his home, "Le Rouge Gorge" A street in Dijon bears his name A remarkable biography has been written about this extraordinary artist and will be given to the purchaser of the painting A certificate of authenticity will accompany the painting Free shipping within the European Union 250 euros for international shipping