Description

A superb pair of plaster church statues with painted decorations of very high quality. They are a good size--140 cm tall--and, above all, would make a beautiful addition to an old house. They are in perfect condition, with just two tiny, practically invisible missing fingertips. They were made by the Moudenc factory in Launaguet (a suburb of Toulouse). This factory produced religious decorations for churches in the 19th century. Each weighs approximately 30-40 kg. They can be sold separately. Exchanges or trade-ins for antiques are possible.
