Description

A beautiful original 19th-century gouache from the Empire period, depicting an elegant country estate set amid a vast, rolling landscape. In the foreground, a young family in period costumes brings life to a flower-filled terrace, while the estate overlooks a panorama of gardens, fields, and trees. The entire scene is rendered with great finesse, showing remarkable attention to detail in the architecture, the figures, and the vegetation. The composition offers a beautiful sense of depth and perspective and subtly captures the peaceful atmosphere of the grand estates of the 19th century. Unsigned work, presented in its original wooden frame. A high-quality decorative piece, ideal for lovers of old drawings and gouaches, romantic landscapes, and views of historic estates

.Outer frame dimensions: 82.5 × 55 cm.
