Description

We are pleased to present this elegant and refined chandelier dating from the early 20th century, featuring 19 light bulbs. This chandelier features a design typical of the Art Nouveau period, when decoration was inspired by nature. It is crafted from an elegant combination of bronze, engraved glass, and stunning pendants made of clear and colored glass in the shape of fruit. The bronze frame features 12 spectacular curved arms, arranged on two levels, that extend outward and support faux candles with light bulbs. In the center and at the bottom, decorative sections of satin-finished glass conceal the interior of the structure, which houses an additional 7 light bulbs. Stunning glass pendants adorn the entire chandelier, creating a striking visual accent. Clear crystal teardrop pendants, amber-colored fruits,
