Description

An elegant, old-style Persian guide rug, hand-knotted in wool, featuring a refined geometric design typical of the textile traditions of Central Asia and Western Persia. The field, embellished with a succession of large rhomboidal medallions, extends harmoniously along the entire length of the rug, creating a pleasing sense of perspective. The rich color palette, dominated by intense shades of red, midnight blue, and ivory, lends great depth and vibrancy to the overall design, while the border, decorated with floral and geometric motifs, further enhances the composition. The artisanal craftsmanship and the quality of the wool reflect the Persian manufacturing tradition and make each piece unique. Perfect for enhancing a hallway, entryway, or any classic or
