Description

A beautiful Louis XV chest of drawers made of solid cherry and oak, from Castres in the Tarn. It rests on two front legs with "snail-shaped" scrolls and two straight-sided rear legs; please note that these four legs have undergone historical repairs--see photos. Our chest of drawers features three large drawers arranged in three rows on the front; each drawer has two bronze pull handles and a bronze lock plate--all of which are entirely original. The sides are decorated with three raised panels; this type of construction is distinctive and was used primarily by cabinetmakers in the city of Castres. The piece is topped with a solid cherry wood top featuring subtle molding around its entire perimeter. The interior of each drawer has been fully lined with a beautiful patterned fabric on a yellow background. A high-quality and very
