Description

Very rare and original bistro tables with beautifully riveted brass tops resting on painted, patinated iron tripod legs. Needs restoration; stains and oxidation on the tops, visible in the photos...This exceptional set of 3 vintage bistro tables has a unique charm, ideal for defining the layout of a café, a retro-style restaurant, or an interior with a bold industrial design. The striking contrast between the warmth of the riveted brass and the raw silhouette of the patinated iron tripod base makes these highly sought-after pieces with real character. An ideal restoration project for lovers of authenticity and high-end vintage finds, allowing you to restore the full luster of an inimitable patina that has stood the test of time
