Description

A 19th-century devotional reliquary dedicated to Saint John Baptist de La Salle. A beautiful silver-plated piece, adorned with angels, flowers, a crown, and a radiant dove. In the center, under glass, the relic is displayed on a silk background against a delicate setting of gilded scrollwork and small pearls, accompanied by its label reading "St. John the Baptist de La Salle." On the reverse, the reliquary retains its original closure with red threads as well as its pontifical seal in red wax authenticating the relic.
