Description

The sides and front feature a plum wood background, accented with a boxwood and ebony lattice and a mahogany and cherry wood cube motif. The rounded corners of the frame are accentuated by fluted inlays of ebony and lemonwood. This cabinet rests on four turned legs veneered in amaranth, which rest on bronze feet. The recessed bronze handles are mounted with beaded accents and fluted details. The bronze lock plates are decorated with a ribbon motif, a laurel garland, and beaded accents. The original marble top, which has been repolished, with its grooved molding, further enhances this harmony. The interior of the oak drawers has been cleaned and varnished, and all the drawer slides have been serviced. This piece is not merely a ceremonial piece; its size makes it easy to
