Description

Elegant Napoleon III-style fireplace screen with a mahogany side shelf, dating from the second half of the 19th century. This ingenious piece combines decorative appeal with practicality thanks to its retractable side shelf, which allows you to set down a book, a sewing project, or a cup of tea while enjoying the warmth of the fireplace. The upper panel, with its undulating shape, is upholstered in a beautiful fabric featuring a polychrome floral pattern on a blue background, framed by a braided trim. This upholstery adds a warm and refined touch, harmonizing with the wood's beautiful patina. The sliding shelf on the front, discreetly integrated into the structure, showcases the full range of 19th-century English cabinetmaking craftsmanship. The entire piece rests on a base with glides connected by a
